I. The Cost of Spiritual Freedom
(I Corinthians 11:23-25)

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

23 For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread;

24 and when He had given thanks,
He broke it and said, “Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you;
do this in remembrance of Me.”

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

25 In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

II. The Call of Spiritual Freedom
(I Corinthians 11:26)

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

III. The Continuation of Spiritual
Freedom (I Corinthians 11:27-32)

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

29 For he who eats and drinks [d]in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep.

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged.

(The Lord's Supper)
“The High Cost of Freedom”

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.
